Elegy

for the Unforgotten and the Unforgettable

Elegies are sorrowful laments for those who have passed on. When writing “Elegy for the Unforgotten and the Unforgettable”, I found my mind rapidly moving from sorrow to anger to sadness to melancholy and lastly to remembrances. It is dedicated to Don Palmer, Jim Haefele, and Michael Carubia, all outstanding music educators, colleagues, and friends who died from Covid 19 complications.

Everyone in the world has been impacted by the virus and to date 759,310 related deaths have occurred in the United States alone. Social, economic, and personal impacts have been deeply felt throughout the world. The long term and emotional effects upon the fortunate are yet to be discovered.

I have been emotionally lifted by the energy shared by the Suffolk Principal Orchestra members. Their excitement is uniquely different than in the past, quite possibly a visceral holding onto the thread of life as we know it can be - as we hope it will be. Oh how important this music opportunity is to them - to me - to all involved. They are the best of the best. Today's performance comes from their hearts to all of you in the audience. May we find solace in our loss - in our time of need. May we all help each other stay happy and healthy.

About MYO

The Metropolitan Youth Orchestra of New York (MYO) is committed to fostering a community of talented young musicians from Long Island and providing them with an opportunity to rehearse and perform choral and orchestral masterworks at the highest possible level with recognized leaders in music education and performance. Founded in 1993 by John C. McNeur, MYO has grown from a 15-piece orchestra to seven orchestras and eight choirs, serving over 750 musicians between the ages of 8 and 18. MYO enjoys a rich tradition of international summer performance tours, beginning with the 1997 tour to Germany, France, and Austria through the most recent tour to Berlin, Dresden, Prague, Vienna, and Budapest in July 2018, and looking ahead to the July 2022 Italy Tour.

Don't Just Play.

PERFORM AT YOUR HIGHEST LEVEL.
