About the Music Directors

Catherine Birke

Catherine Birke

Catherine Birke (Nassau Symphony Orchestra) is the Director of Orchestras at Herricks High School, where her four thriving ensembles consistently earn the highest ratings at the NYSSMA Major Evaluation Festival, as well as other regional festivals and competitions. Under her direction, the Herricks HS Chamber Orchestra won 1st Place High School String Orchestra in the American String Teachers' Association (ASTA) 2018 National Orchestra Festival. This ensemble has also placed multiple times in The American Prize competition, and performed at the NYSSMA Winter Conference and Carnegie Hall.

Birke's small chamber ensembles consistently earn high honors as well, including regular participation in the Lincoln Center Chamber Music Society's Young Musicians Program (YMP) competition. In 2018, her cello quartet gave the NYC premiere of Bryan Wysocki's "reOrient" at Alice Tully Hall. In 2019, two of Birke's chamber ensembles participated in the Music for All National Chamber Music Festival, held in Indianapolis.

Mrs. Birke is the Director of Strings at the New York State Summer School of the Arts (NYSSSA) School of Orchestral Studies, an intensive residential summer program for advanced high school musicians co-sponsored by the Philadelphia Orchestra. She is also an adjunct Music Education faculty member at Hofstra University. A sought after guest conductor and an accomplished violinist, Mrs. Birke performs regularly as the Concertmaster of the South Shore Symphony. She holds a Bachelor of Music degree from Temple University (where she studied with co-concertmaster of the Philadelphia Orchestra, William DePasquale) and a Master of Music degree from the University of the Arts.

About the Music Directors

Peggy Ho

Peggy Ho (Nassau Concert Orchestra) began her musical training on clarinet, piano, and violin in grade school. She holds a Bachelor of Music in education and clarinet performance from Ithaca College, a Master of Arts in music history from LI University, a Master of Arts in conducting from Hofstra University, and Doctorate in music education from Teachers College, Columbia University. Her clarinet teachers include Naomi Drucker, Richard Faria, and Ayako Oshima Neidich. Having traveled extensively throughout the world, Dr. Ho has performed as principal clarinetist with the North American Elite Youth Orchestra, the Long Island Youth Orchestra, and performed with the Rome Music Festival. She has guest conducted regional and district orchestras throughout New York. Her interest in the expansion of the performance education programs to include portfolio and project based assessment have led her to share her thoughts as presenter at various music conferences, including the Winter NYSSMA Conference, Balanced Curriculum Mind Conference, and NYSBDA Symposium. Dr. Ho is a featured educator in NYSSMA's DVD Music Views and has been published in School Music News. She is currently the Director of Bands at the Wheatley School in East Williston, NY.

About the Music Directors

Michelina Sobolewski

Michelina Sobolewski

Michelina Sobolewski (Nassau String Orchestra) received her Bachelor of Music Education from the Crane School of Music, where she studied Viola with Dr. Peter Bucknell and Dr. Shelly Tramposh. She received her Master's degree from Stony Brook University, and Suzuki certification from the Hartt School of Music under the guidance of Carrie Reuning-Hummel, one of the first Suzuki students in the United States. Mrs. Sobolewski is an active member of the music community, having served as a chairperson for Nassau County Music Educators Association (NMEA), and on the executive board of the Long Island String Festival (LISFA). She has performed with the Sound Symphony Orchestra, Crane Alumni Orchestra, and is a pit musician for the Manhasset School District. Mrs. Sobolewski has been a clinician for NYSCAME and Balanced Mind Conferences, presenting workshops on curriculum, mindfulness, and programming. In addition to her passion for music, she is a certified yoga instructor for kids and adults focusing on how breathing and mindfulness can help to improve performance. Mrs. Sobolewski is currently an elementary orchestra teacher in the Herricks School District. Her orchestras perform regularly at the NYSSMA Major Organization Evaluation Festival, consistently receiving "Gold" and "Gold with Distinction" ratings.

About the Music Directors

Since MYO's inception, Mr. Stickley has seen the organization become one of the largest youth orchestra and choir programs in the country. Highlights of Maestro Stickley's tenure include an audience-acclaimed tour of Central Europe featuring benefit concerts in Vienna, Dresden and Berlin; a performance at Jazz at Lincoln Center of the 2019 MYO award winning composition On-Again, Off Again by Juilliard graduate Jack Frerer, 2016 MYO Orchestra performance at the Granada International Festival of Music and Dance; a 2014 Carnegie Hall world premiere of Norwegian composer Ola Gjeilo's choral masterwork To the East and To the West; a dynamic 2007 performance at the New York State School Music Association Conference; a first-time MYO performance of Beethoven's Symphony No. 9 at David Geffen Hall in 2006; and a 2004 performance of Pulitzer Prize-winning composer Paul Moravec's MYO commission and world premiere, New York Dances. Soloists featured with MYO under his direction include the New York Philharmonic's clarinetist Stanley Drucker, Metropolitan Opera soprano Danielle de Niese, and international piano soloist Gilles Vonsattel. Scott Stickley teaches instrumental music for the Herricks Schools, has served as interim director for the Adelphi University orchestra, and guest conducted the orchestra at the Crane School of Music at SUNY Potsdam.
