About the Music Directors

Doreen Fryling, Ed.D. (Nassau Concert Choir) is in her twenty-second year as a public school music educator. She currently teaches IB Music and chorus classes at South Side High School in Rockville Centre, NY, and has previously taught K-5 general music and middle school chorus. Doreen has presented on topics including differentiation, the boy's changing voice, vocal health, curriculum, and politics in education. She is an outspoken critic of high-stakes testing and its negative effect on music education opportunities for students. Doreen is an active and founding member of the eVoco Voice Collective and teaches eVoco's Open Door Ensemble (ODE), which aims to help people learn to sing better (even if they think they can't!). Her singing experience includes solos in oratorios, stage work in operetta and musical theatre, and performance in song recitals. In addition to her school choirs, Doreen has conducted the Hofstra University Chorale and Chorus. She also maintains an active schedule as a collaborative pianist. Doreen recently completed a Doctorate of Education in Learning and Teaching at Hofstra University. Her dissertation is on the psychological and sociological factors that influence persistence in choral singing. She also holds degrees from Susquehanna University and the University of Michigan. In 2015 Doreen was recognized as a semifinalist for the Grammy Music Educator Award. She has been published several times on the NAfME Music in a Minuet Blog and featured in their Member Spotlight Interviews. Doreen shares her love of music making with her husband, David, and their two children.

Craig B. Knapp (Nassau Treble Choir) is a graduate of the Crane School of Music and has been teaching Classroom Music and Chorus, grades 3 through 5, in the Rocky Point School District since 1998. With his innovative and energetic approach to music education, Mr. Knapp directs The Metropolitan Youth Orchestra of New York's Children's Treble Choirs. Craig is an Adjunct Assistant Professor at Hofstra University. He is also the director of the Early Childhood Community Music Program at Stony Brook University, where he instructs children in Pre-K through 3rd grade. Craig is the co-author of the book, "First Steps in Music with Orff Schulwerk: Sing, Say, Dance, Play." Craig is a sought-after clinician and choral conductor and has guest conducted for the Connecticut Music Educators' Association Elementary Honors Choir, KONY (Kodály Organization of New York) "Voices United" Festival, Pennsylvania Music Educators' Association Elementary ChorusFest and various All-County chorus groups throughout New York. Craig has presented elementary classroom music and choral workshops at various music education conferences, including national conferences for NAfME (National Association for Music Education), ACDA (American Choral Directors Association), OAKE (Organization of American Kodály Educators), and FAME (Feierabend Association for Music Education). Mr. Knapp is the Program Coordinator for the Orff-Schulwerk Summer Studies at Hofstra University. Craig is a Past-President of SCMEA (Suffolk County Music Educators' Association) and is actively involved with NYSSMA (New York State School Music Association), currently serving on their Curriculum Committee. Craig is the only educator to simultaneously hold Lifetime Memberships in ACDA, FAME and OAKE.

Edward P. Norris III (Nassau Chamber Chorale) is the director of Choral Music at Glen Cove High School. He conducts the Mixed Chorus and Select Chorale. Mr. Norris also teaches courses in Music Theory, and AP Music Theory. He serves as the districts 'music team leader' for music grades 6-12. During Mr. Norris' tenure at Glen Cove High School, the Mixed Chorus and Select Chorale have only received Gold Medals and Gold Medals with Distinction at the NYSSMA Major Ensemble festivals. In 2013, the Select Chorale was invited to perform at the White House for the President and Mrs. Obama, as well as other invited guests. In January of 2016, Mr. Norris and the Select Chorale performed in a concert tour of Italy which included performances at St. Peters Basillica, the Church of San Lorenzo, and the Basillica of St. Francis. While on tour, the Chorale had the distinct honor to perform for His Holiness; Pope Francis at the Feast of the Epiphany at St. Peters. Mr. Norris is also an adjunct professor at the Aaron Copland School of Music at Queens College. Mr. Norris is extremely proud to be the director of The Metropolitan Youth Orchestra (MYO) Chamber Chorale. In recent years, this group has performed some of the world's finest choral literature. Last season the Chamber Chorale joined forces with Mr. Norris' Glen Cove Select Chorale to perform a special concert in Lincoln Center featuring the music of Ola Gjeilo with the composer at the piano. Mr. Norris is extremely grateful for the opportunity to work with these fine young vocalists!

About the Music Directors

Louise O'Hanlon (Nassau Symphonic Choir) has been an educator for the past 28 years. She is proud to have spent 24 of those years in the Herricks School District. Ms. O'Hanlon holds a Bachelor of Music and a Higher Diploma in Education from University College in Cork, Ireland; a Master's Degree in Education from Lehman College (City University of New York); and certificates in both Orff (Hofstra University) and Kodaly (New York University). Louise has been studying choral conducting and taking further choral studies at Westminster Choir

College in Princeton, New Jersey during the summer months. At Herricks High School, Louise teaches Treble Choir, Chamber Choir, and Mixed Chorus. Under Ms. O'Hanlon's directorship, Herricks Chamber Choir has consistently received ratings of Gold and Gold with Distinction for Level VI performance at NYSSMA. Chamber Choir has performed at the ACDA All Eastern Conference (American Choral Director Association) in 2012 and at the NYACDA Conference in October 2016. Her choirs have also performed at Carnegie Hall, Alice Tully Hall, Lincoln Center, Queens College, Adelphi University, Hofstra University, and Westminster Choir College. Professionally, Ms. O'Hanlon has been a guest conductor for several All County festivals in Suffolk County. Ms. O'Hanlon's passion for World Music has led to reading sessions at Westminster Choir College and a presentation at the Crane School of Music. In the fall of 2017, Ms. O'Hanlon presented World Music workshops at the Balanced Mind Conference and the NYACDA Conference. As the conductor of Symphonic Choir she loves to expose her students to a wide variety of ethnically diverse music.

About the Pianists

Naomi Aomori (Nassau Treble Choir and Nassau Symphonic Choir) has been an active soloist, chamber musician, and accompanist for over 40 years. As a performing artist, she has worked with both young musicians and professionals, performing in halls throughout the New York area including Carnegie Hall, Avery Fisher Hall, LeFrak Concert Hall, Jazz at Lincoln Center, Tilles Center, Madison Theater, Flushing Town Hall and Kaufmann Concert Hall at the 92nd Street Y. She has accompanied groups such as the All-County HS

Women's Chorus, Division 3 Chorus, Mineola Choral Society, Queens College Orchestra, and has worked with over 150 singers and instrumentalists for various auditions, competitions, college entrance exams and NYSSMA events. She has also performed with many school choral groups, school musicals, and ballet dancers, playing a wide range of repertoire from classical to jazz. She also remains an active educator, teaching private piano lessons. Previously, she taught ear training and music theory lessons at the Children's Orchestra Society and at the Yamaha School of Music in Tokyo, Japan. Some of her students have gone on to study at prestigious conservatories around the country. Ms. Aomori graduated from the Senzoku Gakuen University in Japan majoring in Music Education, and completed her Master of Arts degree at the Aaron Copland School of Music, Queens College under the direction of Ms. Morey Ritt.

Cara Brown (Nassau Chamber Chorale) received her Bachelor of Music Degree from Butler University and her Master's Degree in Music Education from Hofstra University. She currently serves as Music and Drama teacher at East Woods School in Oyster Bay. At East Woods, Ms. Brown teaches General and Vocal Music to Pre-Nursery through 4th grade as well as various Upper School electives including Choir, Drama, and Musical Theatre. In addition to her work at East Woods, Ms. Brown maintains an active practice teaching private piano and voice lessons and also serves as Director of the Theater Education Program at the Smithtown Performing Arts Center. Previously the Associate Artistic Director and Resident Musical Director for the Smithtown Performing Arts Council, she has received multiple Broadway World nominations for Best Musical Direction and her private students are regularly selected to attend All-County and All-State festivals. Ms. Brown has served as accompanist and assistant conductor for the Nassau Youth Chorale (now Nassau Chamber Chorale) since 2007.

Talented young musicians have the opportunity to advance their ensemble and musicianship skills, and broaden their musical horizons with the guidance of an exceptional and devoted faculty at Stony Brook University.

Students should be entering 6th grade in Fall 2018 and perform at an intermediate to advanced level. Join us for a weeklong summer camp or Saturdays throughout the school year.

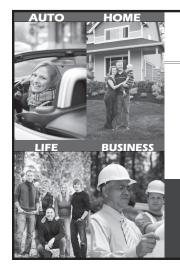

For more information and to schedule an audition visit stonybrook.edu/sbcmp, call (631) 632-7313 or email communitymusic@stonybrook.edu.

Jeong-Hwa Park (Nassau Concert Choir) has been actively teaching and performing as a soloist and chamber musician in South Korea and the United States. Ms. Park holds Master of Arts and Doctor of Musical Arts degrees in piano performance from Arizona State University (ASU). She has won numerous awards including first prize in The Joseph and Ida Klatzkin Contemporary Solo Keyboard Music Competition and the ASU Piano Concerto Competition, and a Special Presentation Award from Artists International Presentations. Her concerto performance with the ASU Symphony Orchestra was broadcast on public radio, KBAQ, in Arizona. Her major performances include a New York debut recital at Weill Hall at Carnegie Hall, Old First Concert Series in San Francisco, Gammage Auditorium in Arizona, Museum of Arts in Arizona, London Piano Festival, and Master Works Festival at Houghton College, New York. In South Korea, she performed her solo recital at Dajeon Arts and Cultural Center, and a lecture recital at Buam Art Hall in Seoul. She also gave a performance at the College Music Society International Conference in Seoul as a collaborative pianist. As an accompanist, she performed for World Vision Korea Children's Choir and was invited to accompany the National Choir of Korea on tour, resulting in several concerts which were broadcast on Korean national television. Currently, Ms. Park is an adjunct faculty member at Nassau Community College; serves on the piano faculty at Center for Preparatory Studies in Music at Queens College and Brooklyn Conservatory of Music.

ABOUT THE METROPOLITAN YOUTH ORCHESTRA OF NEW YORK

The Metropolitan Youth Orchestra of New York (MYO) is committed to fostering a community of talented young musicians from Long Island and providing them with an opportunity to rehearse and perform choral and orchestral masterworks at the highest possible level with recognized leaders in music education and performance. Founded in 1993 by John C. McNeur, MYO has grown from a 15-piece orchestra to seven orchestras, a flute choir, and seven choral ensembles, serving over 1,000 musicians between the ages of 8 and 18. MYO enjoys a rich tradition of international summer performance tours, beginning with the 1997 tour to Germany, France, and Austria through the most recent tour to Spain in 2016. MYO is thrilled to announce our 12th international performance tour to Berlin, Dresden, Prague, Vienna, and Budapest in July 2018.
