About the Music Directors

Melanie Dominick (Suffolk Concert Choir) joined the MYO family in 2009, first as the substitute conductor and then later as the assistant conductor for the Suffolk County Children's Choir. In 2012, the choir expanded and Mrs. Dominick became the founding conductor of the Suffolk Concert Choir. She has spent her career in the public schools of Nassau and Suffolk County, having taught all grade levels from kindergarten through high school in addition to directing school musicals. Mrs. Dominick's choirs attend the NYSSMA Major Organization festival annually, receiving ratings of Gold or Gold with Distinction. She has had several students attend ACDA State, Regional, and National children's, middle, and high school honor choirs. Mrs. Dominick received her Bachelor of Music from Ithaca College in Vocal Performance and Music Education, studying voice with Elizabeth Koch and Patrick Hansen, and choral music with Dr. Janet Galván and Lawrence Doebler. She received her Masters of Arts in Music Education with a concentration in musical theatre from New York University. Mrs. Dominick is an active member of NAfME, NYSSMA, SCMEA, and ACDA, where she has served on the selection committee for the ACDA Eastern Division Elementary and Junior High Honor Choirs. Currently, Mrs. Dominick is the choral director at Seneca Middle School in the Sachem Central School District and maintains a private vocal studio, where her students continue to achieve high musical honors, including acceptance to All-National, All-State, All-County, ACDA National and Regional Honor Choirs, and invitations to perform at regional venues.

About the Music Directors

Shoshana Hershkowitz (Suffolk Symphonic Choir) holds degrees in music education and vocal performance from the Crane School of Music at SUNY Potsdam. She is an artist in residence at Stony Brook University, where she conducts the Stony Brook Chorale and Camerata Singers, and prepares choirs for the opera productions. She is proud to be the founding conductor of MYO's Suffolk Symphonic Choir (formerly named the Suffolk Youth Chorale), which debuted in 2013. From 1999-2009, Mrs. Hershkowitz taught at Commack High School, where she directed mixed and women's choirs. As a guest conductor, Mrs. Hershkowitz has conducted choirs of all age levels for the Vermont Music Educators Association, Nassau Music Educators Association, Suffolk County Music Educators Association, Hamptons Music Educators Association, Three Village schools, and Eastern U.S. Music Camp. As a clinician, Mrs. Hershkowitz has presented workshops for NYSCAME, SCMEA, the Society for Ethics in Education, and the Balanced Mind Conference, as well as with school choirs and choral directors across Long Island. Mrs. Hershkowitz is a proud member of the eVoco Voice Collective, a semi-professional chamber choir. Mrs. Hershkowitz will direct the MYO Tour Choir in Europe next July, 2018.

Craig B. Knapp (Suffolk Treble Choir) is a graduate of the Crane School of Music and has been teaching Classroom Music and Chorus, grades 3 through 5, in the Rocky Point School District since 1998. With his innovative and energetic approach to music education, Mr. Knapp directs The Metropolitan Youth Orchestra of New York's Children's Treble Choirs. Craig is an Adjunct Assistant Professor at Hofstra University. He is also the director of the Early Childhood Community Music Program at Stony Brook University, where he instructs children in Pre-K through 3rd grade. Craig is the co-author of the book, "First Steps in Music with Orff Schulwerk: Sing, Say, Dance, Play." Craig is a sought-after clinician and choral conductor and has guest conducted for the Connecticut Music Educators' Association Elementary Honors Choir, KONY (Kodály Organization of New York) "Voices United" Festival, Pennsylvania Music Educators' Association Elementary Chorus Fest and various All-County chorus groups throughout New York. Craig has presented elementary classroom music and choral workshops at various music education conferences, including national conferences for NAfME (National Association for Music Education), ACDA (American Choral Directors Association), OAKE (Organization of American Kodály Educators), and FAME (Feierabend Association for Music Education). Mr. Knapp is the Program Coordinator for the Orff-Schulwerk Summer Studies at Hofstra University. Craig is a Past-President of SCMEA (Suffolk County Music Educators' Association) and is actively involved with NYSSMA (New York State School Music Association), currently serving on their Curriculum Committee. Craig is the only educator to simultaneously hold Lifetime Memberships in ACDA, FAME and OAKE.

About the Music Directors

Eileen Murphy (Suffolk Concert Orchestra) is an experienced conductor, violinist and music educator. During her 35 years as a professional educator, she taught all levels of strings for the Manhasset Public School district and served as Leader Teacher for the Fine and Performing Arts department for several years. Her orchestras participated in regional music festivals and NYSSMA Majors Festivals many times, always receiving high praise from adjudicators. She has been a National Board Certified teacher and has been honored by the Manhasset Chamber of Commerce as its "Woman of the Year." A violinist, Ms. Murphy graduated as a Presidential Scholar from SUNY College at Fredonia with a Bachelor of Music in Music Education. She received her Master's in Music Education from CUNY Queens College. While an undergraduate, she also studied violin and piano at the Hochschule für Musik in Vienna, Austria. She performs as a violinist with local orchestras and is a principal player and guest conductor with the South Shore Symphony of the Rockville Centre Guild for the Arts. She has been an "artist-in-residence" for Nassau and Western Suffolk BOCES and an adjunct professor at CUNY Queens College and Hofstra University. Ms. Murphy has conducted both string and symphony orchestras throughout her career. In addition, she has conducted numerous pit orchestras for high school musical productions, coached small ensembles, and created and directed Mariachi and Irish fiddling groups. She is an adjudicator for NYSSMA Solo and Ensemble Festivals, NYSSMA Majors Festivals and is a frequent guest conductor at area festivals.

Phil Preddice (Suffolk Principal Orchestra) is a graduate of the Crane School of Music where he studied viola with Lamar Alsop, Theodore Israel, and Maurice Baritaud. His conducting studies were carefully guided by Professor Brock McElheran. Performances under the batons of Eugene Ormandy, James Levine, Stanley Chappel, Howard Hanson, Christopher Keene and Aaron Copland inspired Mr. Preddice to reach for new heights as a conductor. He has been the conductor of the Suffolk Principal Orchestra since its formation in 2008. Mr. Preddice is the founding and Principal Conductor of the Crane School of Music Alumni Festival Orchestra. This ensemble founded in 2014, performs concerts to raise scholarship funds for students wishing to pursue advanced music studies at the Crane School of Music at SUNY Potsdam. Mr. Preddice frequently conducts State, and Regional Festival Orchestras. For many years, he worked as Principal Conductor of the New York State Summer School of the Arts String Orchestra in Saratoga. Mr. Preddice is a past President of the Suffolk County Music Educator's Association. Additionally, he has held Executive Board positions with the Long Island String Festival Association, and the New York State American String Teacher's Association. He is currently retired from a career as Orchestra director in the Commack, Shoreham-Wading River, and Three Village school districts. Mr. Preddice is the recipient of the 2000 Helen Hosmer Excellence in Music Teaching Award, granted by the Alumni Association of the Crane School of Music at SUNY Potsdam.

About the Music Directors

Scott Zarchy (Suffolk Symphony Orchestra) is a music educator, cellist, and composer. Mr. Zarchy received undergraduate degrees in Cello Performance and Music Education from the Peabody Conservatory, where he also completed studies in composition. He received a Master of Music degree in Music Education from Boston University and a Master of Arts in Music Composition from Hunter College (CUNY). Mr. Zarchy studied the cello at Peabody with the late Mihaly Virizlay, 40-year Principal Cellist of the Baltimore Symphony, and Alan Stepansky, former Associate Principal of the New York Philharmonic. Mr. Zarchy also performed in master classes with cellists including Alisa Weilerstein, Natasha Brofsky, and Amit Peled. Mr. Zarchy was the founding conductor of the Suffolk Concert Orchestra from its inception in 2009 until 2013, at which time he became the founding conductor of the Suffolk Symphony Orchestra. Mr. Zarchy has been the orchestra teacher, as well as pit orchestra and chamber orchestra director, at Patchogue-Medford High School since 2006, where his ensembles have regularly achieved NYSSMA Level VI Gold and Gold with Distinction ratings. Mr. Zarchy's public school conducting has spanned a wide range of genres, including extensive musical theater work, film music, combined choral/instrumental works and jazz, as well as more traditional classical repertoire. In addition, he is a former executive board member of Long Island String Festival Association and is an active member of the Long Island music education community, having given several workshops on string teaching at professional development conferences.

About the Pianists

Brad Drinkwater (Suffolk Symphonic Choir) holds degrees in music and music education with dual concentrations in voice and piano from New York University and Teachers College, Columbia University. Brad is in his thirteenth year teaching music and currently directs the Concert Choir and Vocal Jazz ensemble and teaches Advanced Placement Music Theory at Connetquot High School in Bohemia. He also maintains an active voice and piano studio and is a proud member of the eVoco Voice Collective.

About the Pianists

Kaitlin Schneekloth (Suffolk Treble Choir) is the Choral Director at Copiague Middle School, where she conducts four choral ensembles and has directed several of the school's musicals. Her Chamber Chorus performs annually at NYSSMA Major Organization Festivals where they have received consistent "Gold" and "Gold with Distinction" ratings. Ms. Schneekloth has served as the piano accompanist for several organizations in the New York area, including The Syracuse Children's Chorus, SCMEA All-County Division III West, and several of Long Island's public school districts. She has earned a Master of Arts with Distinction in Music Education from Hofstra University, where she served as a graduate assistant choral conductor to Dr. David Fryling. Under Dr. Fryling's mentorship, she gave a graduate choral conducting recital, featuring the Hofstra Chamber Choir, of which she was a member. Additionally, she has written an experience-based Master's thesis entitled, The Pedagogical Process of Choral Conducting at Two Ends of the Spectrum: Successfully Leading the Elementary Chorus and the Collegiate Choir. Following her graduate studies, Kaitlin became a founding member of the eVoco Voice Collective under Fryling's direction. Ms. Schneekloth earned a Bachelor of Music in Music Education from Syracuse University, from which she graduated summa cum laude.

Brendan Sparks (Suffolk Concert Choir) is director of the 11th and 12th Grade Mixed Chorus and Advanced Placement Music Theory teacher at Longwood High School in Middle Island, NY. At Longwood, Mr. Sparks is also the Vocal Director of the school musical, and Director of the Choral Lions Select Chorus. Mr. Sparks is a graduate of the Crane School of Music at SUNY Potsdam, where he received his Bachelor of Music and Master of Music degrees in Music Education. He studied piano under Eugenia Tsarov, and was the accompanist for the Phoenix Club, Men's Chorus, and Hosmer Choir. As a choral director, Mr. Sparks' ensembles have won 1st Place at the Music in the Parks Festivals at Six Flags and Hershey Park. His students have been selected as members of the All-Eastern, All-State, and NYSCAME Festivals. Mr. Sparks' AP Music Theory students regularly earn college credit on the exam and have gone on to pursue degrees in music. In addition to the MYO Suffolk Concert Choir, Mr. Sparks has also been the accompanist for the MYO Suffolk Children's Choir and SCMEA Div. II Choruses. He frequently performs as a keyboardist and vocalist in Tradewinds, an 11-piece cover band, appearing across Long Island. Mr. Sparks would like to thank his wife, Meredith, and daughters, Noelle and Ryleigh, for their love and support for all of his musical activities.

ABOUT THE METROPOLITAN YOUTH ORCHESTRA OF NEW YORK

The Metropolitan Youth Orchestra of New York (MYO) is committed to fostering a community of talented young musicians from Long Island and providing them with an opportunity to rehearse and perform choral and orchestral masterworks at the highest possible level with recognized leaders in music education and performance. Founded in 1993 by John C. McNeur, MYO has grown from a 15-piece orchestra to seven orchestras, a flute choir, and seven choral ensembles, serving over 1,000 musicians between the ages of 8 and 18. MYO enjoys a rich tradition of international summer performance tours, beginning with the 1997 tour to Germany, France, and Austria through the most recent tour to Spain in 2016. MYO is thrilled to announce our 12th international performance tour to Berlin, Dresden, Prague, Vienna, and Budapest in July 2018.
