AMERICA, THE BEAUTIFUL LYRICS

O beautiful for spacious skies, for amber waves of grain
For purple mountain majesties, above the fruited plain
America, America, God shed His grace on thee
And crown thy good with brotherhood, from sea to shining sea

O beautiful for patriot's dream, That sees beyond the years
Thine alabaster cities gleam, undimmed by human tears.
America! America! God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood, from sea to shining sea.

About the Music Directors

Melanie Dominick (Suffolk Concert Choir) joined the MYO family in 2009, first as the substitute conductor and then later as the assistant conductor for the Suffolk County Children's Choir. In 2012, the choir expanded and Mrs. Dominick became the founding conductor of the Suffolk Concert Choir. She has spent her career in the public schools of Nassau and Suffolk County, having taught all grade levels from kindergarten through high school in addition to directing school musicals. Mrs. Dominick's choirs attend the NYSSMA Major Organization festival annually, receiving ratings of Gold or Gold with Distinction. She has had several students attend ACDA State, Regional, and National children's, middle, and high school honor choirs. Mrs. Dominick received her Bachelor of Music from Ithaca College in Vocal Performance and Music Education, studying voice with Elizabeth Koch and Patrick Hansen, and choral music with Dr. Janet Galván and Lawrence Doebler. She received her Masters of Arts in Music Education with a concentration in musical theatre from New York University. Mrs. Dominick is an active member of NAFME, NYSSMA, SCMEA, and ACDA, where she has served on the selection committee for the ACDA Eastern Division Elementary and Junior High Honor Choirs. Currently, Mrs. Dominick is the choral director at Seneca Middle School in the Sachem Central School District and maintains a private vocal studio, where her students continue to achieve high musical honors, including acceptance to All-National, All-State, All-County, ACDA National and Regional Honor Choirs, and invitations to perform at regional venues.

Shoshana Hershkowitz (Suffolk Symphonic Choir) holds degrees in music education and vocal performance from the Crane School of Music at SUNY Potsdam. She is an artist in residence at Stony Brook University, where she conducts the Stony Brook Chorale and Camerata Singers, and prepares choirs for the opera productions. She is proud to be the founding conductor of MYO's Suffolk Symphonic Choir (formerly named the Suffolk Youth Chorale), which debuted in 2013. From 1999-2009, Mrs. Hershkowitz taught at Commack High School, where she directed mixed and women's choirs. As a guest conductor, Mrs. Hershkowitz has conducted choirs of all age levels for NYSSMA, Vermont American Choral Directors Association, Vermont Music Educators Association, Nassau Music Educators Association, Suffolk County Music Educators Association, Hamptons Music Educators Association, Three Village schools, and Eastern U.S. Music Camp. As a clinician, Mrs. Hershkowitz has presented workshops for NYSCAME, SCMEA, the Society for Ethics in Education, and the Balanced Mind Conference, as well as with school choirs and choral directors across Long Island. Mrs. Hershkowitz is a proud member of the eVoco Voice Collective, a semi-professional chamber choir. Mrs. Hershkowitz directed the MYO Tour Choir in Europe in the summer of 2018.

Craig B. Knapp (Suffolk Treble Choir) is a graduate of the Crane School of Music and has been teaching Classroom Music and Chorus, grades 3 through 5, in the Rocky Point School District since 1998. With his innovative and energetic approach to music education, Mr. Knapp directs The Metropolitan Youth Orchestra of New York's Children's Treble Choirs. Mr. Knapp is an Adjunct Assistant Professor at Hofstra University, and he is also the director of the Early Childhood Community Music Program at Stony Brook University, where he instructs children in Pre-K through 6th grade. Mr. Knapp is the co-author of the book, "First Steps in Music with Orff Schulwerk: Sing, Say, Dance, Play," is a sought-after clinician and choral conductor, and has guest conducted for the Connecticut Music Educators' Association Elementary Honors Choir, New Hampshire Music Educators'

About the Music Directors

Association Elementary Honors Choir, Kodály Organization of New York “Voices United” Festival, Pennsylvania Music Educators’ Association Elementary ChorusFest and various All-County chorus groups throughout New York. Mr. Knapp has presented elementary classroom music and choral workshops at various music education conferences, including national conferences for the National Association for Music Education, American Choral Directors Association, Organization of American Kodály Educators, and Feierabend Association for Music Education. Mr. Knapp is the Program Coordinator for the Summer Music Studies at Hofstra University, a Past-President of the Suffolk County Music Educators’ Association, and is actively involved with the New York State School Music Association, currently serving on their Curriculum Committee. Mr. Knapp is the only educator to simultaneously hold Lifetime Memberships in ACDA, FAME and OAKE.

Eileen Murphy (Suffolk Concert Orchestra) is an experienced conductor, violinist and music educator. During her 35 years as a professional educator, she taught all levels of strings for the Manhasset Public School district and served as Leader Teacher for the Fine and Performing Arts department for several years. Her orchestras participated in regional music festivals and NYSSMA Majors Festivals many times, always receiving high praise from adjudicators. She has been a National Board Certified teacher and has been honored by the Manhasset Chamber of Commerce as its “Woman of the Year.” A violinist, Ms. Murphy graduated as a Presidential Scholar from SUNY College at Fredonia with a Bachelor of Music in Music Education. She received her Master’s in Music Education from CUNY Queens College. While an undergraduate, she also studied violin and piano at the Hochschule für Musik in Vienna, Austria. She performs as a violinist with local orchestras and is a principal player and guest conductor with the South Shore Symphony of the Rockville Centre Guild for the Arts. She has been an “artist-in-residence” for Nassau and Western Suffolk BOCES and an adjunct professor at CUNY Queens College and Hofstra University. Ms. Murphy has conducted both string and symphony orchestras throughout her career. In addition, she has conducted numerous pit orchestras for high school musical productions, coached small ensembles, and created and directed Mariachi and Irish fiddling groups. She is an adjudicator for NYSSMA Solo and Ensemble Festivals, NYSSMA Majors Festivals and the Long Island Music Festival and is a frequent guest conductor at area festivals.

Phil Preddice (Suffolk Principal Orchestra) is a graduate of the Crane School of Music where he studied viola with Lamar Alsop, Theodore Israel, and Maurice Baritaud. His conducting studies were carefully guided by Professor Brock McElheran. Performances under the batons of Eugene Ormandy, Stanley Chappel, Christopher Keene and Aaron Copland inspired Mr. Preddice to reach for new heights as a conductor. He has been the conductor of the Suffolk Principal Orchestra since its formation in 2008. Mr. Preddice is the founding and Principal Conductor of the Crane School of Music Alumni Festival Orchestra.

He is a composer, with several works premiered by the MYO Suffolk Principal Orchestra. Mr. Preddice frequently conducts State, and Regional Festival Orchestras. For many years, he worked as Principal Conductor of the New York State Summer School of the Arts String Orchestra in Saratoga. Mr. Preddice is a past President of the Suffolk County Music Educators’ Association. Additionally, he has held Executive Board positions with the Long Island String Festival Association, and the New York State American String Teacher’s Association. He is currently retired from a career as Orchestra director in the Commack, Shoreham-Wading River, and Three Village school districts. Mr. Preddice is the recipient of the 2000 Helen Hosmer Excellence in Music Teaching Award, granted by the Alumni Association of the Crane School of Music at SUNY Potsdam.

About the Music Directors

Scott Zarchy (Suffolk Symphony Orchestra) is a music educator, cellist, and composer. Mr. Zarchy received undergraduate degrees in Cello Performance and Music Education from the Peabody Conservatory, where he also completed studies in composition. He received a Master of Music degree in Music Education from Boston University and a Master of Arts in Music Composition from Hunter College (CUNY). Mr. Zarchy studied the cello at Peabody with the late Mihaly Virizlay, 40-year Principal Cellist of the Baltimore Symphony, and Alan Stepansky, former Associate Principal of the New York Philharmonic. Mr. Zarchy also performed in master classes with cellists including Alisa Weilerstein, Natasha Brofsky, and Amit Peled. Mr. Zarchy was the founding conductor of the MYO Suffolk Concert Orchestra from its inception in 2009 until 2013, at which time he became the founding conductor of the Suffolk Symphony Orchestra. Mr. Zarchy has been the orchestra teacher, as well as pit orchestra and chamber orchestra director, at Patchogue-Medford High School since 2006, where his ensembles have regularly achieved NYSSMA Level VI Gold and Gold with Distinction ratings. Mr. Zarchy's public school conducting has spanned a wide range of genres, including extensive musical theater work, film music, combined choral/instrumental works and jazz, as well as more traditional classical repertoire. In addition, he is a former executive board member of LISFA and is an active member of the Long Island music education community, having given several workshops on string teaching at professional development conferences.

About the Pianists

Brad Drinkwater (Suffolk Symphonic Choir) received his Bachelor's degree in Music Education, with dual concentrations in voice and piano, from New York University. At NYU, he studied with David Elliott, Francisco Nuñez, and Deirdre O'Donohue and served as the Assistant Director and pianist for the NYU Children's Choir. He later earned a Master of Arts degree in Music and Music Education from Teachers College, Columbia University. Brad has been teaching music, including 7th through 12th grade mixed and treble voice choirs, for fourteen years. He presently directs the Concert Choir and Vocal Jazz ensemble, while also teaching Advanced Placement Music Theory, at Connetquot High School in Bohemia. The Concert Choir actively tours major metropolitan areas and universities throughout North America. Additionally, Brad frequently serves as a sponsor teacher for skilled Music Education degree candidates from various music teacher preparation programs. Brad has been the pianist for the Suffolk Symphonic Choir since its inception in 2013. He enjoys working as a collaborative pianist and performing throughout Long Island. He also maintains an active voice and piano studio and is a member of the eVoco Voice Collective. Most importantly, he shares his love of music with his wife, Lauren, and their two sons.

Kaitlin Melker (Suffolk Treble Choir) is entering her first year as Director of Choral Activities at W.T. Clarke High School in the East Meadow School District. Mrs. Melker spent five years as the Choral Director at Copiague Middle School, where she conducted four choral ensembles and directed several of the school's musicals. During her tenure at Copiague, Mrs. Melker's Chamber Chorus performed annually at NYSSMA Major Organization Festivals where they received consistent ratings of "Gold" and "Gold with Distinction." Kaitlin has been with The Metropolitan Youth Orchestra of New York since September 2013, where she has served as the piano accompanist for the MYO Suffolk Treble Choir. She has also worked with several organizations in the New York area, accompanying the Syracuse Children's Chorus, the SCMEA Division III West All-County Chorus and for several of Long Island's public school districts. Mrs. Melker earned a Bachelor of Music in Music Education from Syracuse University, from which she graduated summa cum laude. Kaitlin earned a Master of Arts with Distinction in Music Education from Hofstra University, where she served as a graduate assistant choral conductor to Dr. David Fryling. Upon completion of her graduate studies, Kaitlin became a founding member of the eVoco Voice Collective under the direction of Dr. Fryling. This year, Mrs. Melker is excited to be guest conducting the PCMEA 7th and 8th grade All-County Chorus in Putnam County, New York.

Brendan Sparks (Suffolk Concert Choir) is director of the 11th and 12th Grade Mixed Chorus and AP Music Theory teacher at Longwood High School in Middle Island, NY. At Longwood, Mr. Sparks is also the Vocal Director of the school musical, and Director of the Choral Lions Select Chorus. Mr. Sparks is a graduate of the Crane School of Music at SUNY Potsdam, where he received his Bachelor of Music and Master of Music degrees in Music Education. He studied piano under Eugenia Tsarov, and was the accompanist for the Phoenix Club, Men's Chorus, and Hosmer Choir. As a choral director, Mr. Sparks' ensembles have won 1st Place at the Music in the Parks Festivals at Six Flags and Hershey Park. His students have been selected as members of the All-Eastern,

All-State, and NYSCAME Festivals. Mr. Sparks' AP Music Theory students regularly earn college credit on the exam and have gone on to pursue degrees in music. In addition to the MYO Suffolk Concert Choir, Mr. Sparks has also been the accompanist for the MYO Suffolk Children's Choir and SCMEA Div. II Choruses. He frequently performs as a keyboardist and vocalist in Tradewinds, an 11-piece cover band, appearing across Long Island. Mr. Sparks would like to thank his wife, Meredith, and daughters, Noelle and Ryleigh, for their love and support for all of his musical activities.

ABOUT THE METROPOLITAN YOUTH ORCHESTRA OF NEW YORK

The Metropolitan Youth Orchestra of New York (MYO) is committed to fostering a community of talented young musicians from Long Island and providing them with an opportunity to rehearse and perform choral and orchestral masterworks at the highest possible level with recognized leaders in music education and performance. Founded in 1993 by John C. McNeur, MYO has grown from a 15-piece orchestra to seven orchestras and seven choral ensembles, serving close to 1,000 musicians between the ages of 8 and 18. MYO enjoys a rich tradition of international summer performance tours, beginning with the 1997 tour to Germany, France, and Austria through the most recent tour to Berlin, Dresden, Prague, Vienna, and Budapest in July 2018.
