About the March 24 Soloists and Winners of the MYO Concerto and Vocal Competition

Kayla Sorensen has been a member of MYO for eight years. She began taking professional lessons to grow as a musician in 2013. In 2015 and 2016, Kayla attended ACDA conferences in Salt Lake City and Boston and was accepted but could not attend ACDA in Pittsburgh. She participated in All County Conferences, NYSSSA choral studies, as well as Conference All State in 2017 and 2018. In April, Kayla will travel to Pittsburgh to participate in the All Eastern Conference. As a soloist, she has participated in other competitions including the Schmidt competition. Kayla plans to study Music Education in college.

Sofia Tsabalis is 13 years old and an 8th grade student at Merrick Avenue Middle School. This is Sofia's second year with The Metropolitan Youth Orchestra and she is thrilled to be part of Dr. Fryling's Concert Choir. Sofia loves to sing and has been taking voice lessons since age nine. She has participated in NYSSMA and All County. She also plays the guitar and has performed at jam sessions in front of a live audience. Sofia is looking forward to more years of singing with MYO and sharing her love of music.

About Christopher Fludd, Winner of the 2018 MYO Emerging Composers Competition

Christopher Fludd is an eminent and earnest young musician from Long Island, New York. He is a Junior student at Westminster Choir College, studying Music Education and Theory & Composition, and also an alum of MYO's Nassau Chamber Chorale and Symphonic Choir. As a Voice and Composition Primary, he is a student of Joel Phillips, Theodora Hanslowe, and Elem Eley and coaches with Julia Hannah. At Westminster, Christopher sings in three leading ensembles. He is a member of the Westminster Symphonic Choir, Westminster Choir, and Westminster Kantorei. This past summer, Christopher made his debut at the Spoleto USA Festival in Charleston, South Carolina - singing the role of Paolino in Domenic Cimarosa's Il Matrimonio Segreto. Christopher continues to inspire others with his incredible musicianship and passion for the arts. He would like to thank Edward Norris, Louise O'Hanlon and Anthea Jackson for giving him the greatest pleasure of being a part of the MYO community.

About the March 10th Music Directors

Patricia Koppeis (Nassau Symphony Orchestra) began her path to becoming a professional performer and teacher through public school music and church music programs in Charlotte, North Carolina. She attended University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill, received her Bachelor's Degree from New England Conservatory, and completed her Master's Degree from Teachers College, Columbia University. As a professional violinist, she has performed in North Carolina, New York, Southeastern US, and Italy. Her inspiration for teaching was influenced by her training and professional contact with conductors Claude Monteux, Sir Neville Marriner, Russell Sanger, and Benjamin Zander. Her violin teachers Lilo Glick and Eric Rosenblith inspired her to guide her students to the highest musical levels. During her thirty-five year teaching career in the Syosset Central School District (teaching all levels of strings), her Orchestras consistently achieved the highest NYSSMA Major Ensemble ratings and were invited to perform at state and national music conferences. Her students have performed with jazz leaders such as Dave Brubeck, Dr. Billy Taylor, and Dr. Bert Konowitz and have worked with the Metropolitan Opera conductor, Paul Nadler. A frequent clinician and guest conductor, Ms. Koppeis has conducted several Area All-State, All County, LISFA, and Sewanhaka Central High School All-District Festivals. For many summers, she conducted the String Orchestra for the NYSSSA Orchestral Studies Program. Her professional memberships include NYSSMA, NAFME, NMEA, LISFA, and ASTA, and she served as Tri-M Chairperson on both the state and national level. Ms. Koppeis began conducting for MYO in 1997 and continues to conduct the Nassau Symphony Orchestra.

Michael H. Lee* (Nassau Concert Orchestra) is a native New Yorker and grew up on Long Island. He has been an active performer in music festivals across the country, such as the Eastern Music Festival (NC), Las Vegas Music Festival (NV), and the Pierre Monteux School for Conductors and Orchestra Musicians (ME); he was a participant in Burton Kaplan's Magic Music Mountain Practice Retreat (NY), and performed in a special quartet seminar that was held at NYC's famed School for Strings. Mr. Lee is currently Principal Violist for the Park Avenue Chamber Symphony in Manhattan. International performances include the Orford Centre d'Arts in Quebec, Summer Music on the Shannon in Ireland, American Institute of Musical Studies in Graz, Austria and Domaine Forget in Quebec. He holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Music and Political Science from Stony Brook University, a Masters of Science in Education from Queens College and a Masters in Viola Performance from Brooklyn College.

Michael Lee is filling in for Peggy Ho*

About the March 10th Music Directors

Michelina Sobolewski (Nassau String Orchestra) received her Bachelor of Music Education at the Crane School of Music where she studied viola with Dr. Peter Bucknell and Dr. Shelly Tramposh. She received her Master's degree from Stony Brook University, and Suzuki certification from the Hartt School of Music under the guidance of Carrie Reuning-Hummel, one of the first Suzuki students in the United States. Mrs. Sobolewski is an active member of the music community, having served as a chairperson for Nassau County Music Educators Association (NMEA) and newsletter editor of the Long Island String Festival (LISFA). She has performed with Sound Symphony Orchestra and a variety of pit Orchestras in Nassau County. As a clinician, Mrs. Sobolewski has presented workshops at the Balanced Mind Conference relating to programming, curriculum, and mindfulness. In addition to her passion for music, she is a certified yoga instructor for kids and adults focusing on how breathing and mindful movements can help to improve musicians. Mrs. Sobolewski is currently an elementary Orchestra teacher in the Herricks School District. Her Orchestras perform regularly at the NYSSMA Major Organization Evaluation Festival, consistently receiving "Gold" and "Gold With Distinction" ratings.

Scott Stickley (Nassau Principal Orchestra) is one of The Metropolitan Youth Orchestra of New York's longest-tenured conductors. Since MYO's inception, Mr. Stickley has seen the organization become one of the largest youth Orchestra and choir programs in the country. Highlights of Maestro Stickley's tenure include an audience-acclaimed tour of Central Europe featuring benefit concerts in Vienna, Dresden and Berlin; a 2016 MYO Orchestra performance at the Granada International Festival of Music and Dance; a 2014 Carnegie Hall world premiere of Norwegian composer Ola Gjeilo's choral masterwork "To the East and To the West"; a dynamic 2007 performance at the New York State School Music Association Conference; a first-time MYO performance of Beethoven's Ninth Symphony at David Geffen Hall in 2006; and a 2004 performance of Pulitzer Prize-winning composer Paul Moravec's MYO commission and world premiere, "New York Dances". Soloists featured with MYO under his direction include the New York Philharmonic's clarinetist Stanley Drucker, Metropolitan Opera soprano Danielle de Niese, and international piano soloist Gilles Vonsattel. Scott Stickley teaches instrumental music for the Herricks Schools, has served as interim director for the Adelphi University Orchestra, and guest conducted the Orchestra at the Crane School of Music at SUNY Potsdam. Hailing from Oregon, he holds degrees from the University of Oregon and the University of Michigan. He studied conducting at the Tanglewood Music Center and attended conducting seminars with Gustav Meier, Michael Tilson Thomas, and Roger Norrington.

About the March 24th Music Directors

Doreen Fryling, Ed.D. (Nassau Concert Choir) is in her twenty-third year as a public school music educator. She currently teaches IB Music and chorus classes at South Side High School in Rockville Centre, NY, and has previously taught K-5 general music and middle school chorus. Doreen also teaches graduate music education classes at Hofstra University. Doreen is an active and founding member of the eVoco Voice Collective and teaches eVoco's Open Door Ensemble (ODE), which aims to help people learn to sing better (even if they think they can't!). Her singing experience includes solos in oratorios, stage work in operetta and musical theatre, and performance in song recitals. In addition to her school choirs, Doreen has conducted the Hofstra University Chorale and Chorus. She also maintains an active schedule as a collaborative pianist. Doreen recently completed a Doctorate of Education in Learning and Teaching at Hofstra University. Her dissertation is on the psychological and sociological factors that influence persistence in choral singing. She also holds degrees from Susquehanna University and the University of Michigan. In 2015 Doreen was recognized as a semifinalist for the Grammy Music Educator Award. She has been published several times on the NAFME Music in a Minuet Blog and featured in their Member Spotlight Interviews. Doreen shares her love of music making with her husband, David, and their two children.

Craig B. Knapp (Nassau Treble Choir) is a graduate of the Crane School of Music and has been teaching Classroom Music and Chorus, grades 3 through 5, in the Rocky Point School District since 1998. With his innovative and energetic approach to music education, Mr. Knapp directs The Metropolitan Youth Orchestra of New York's Children's Treble Choirs. Mr. Knapp is an Adjunct Assistant Professor at Hofstra University, and he is also the director of the Early Childhood Community Music Program at Stony Brook University, where he instructs children in Pre-K through 6th grade. Mr. Knapp is the co-author of the book, "First Steps in Music with Orff Schulwerk: Sing, Say, Dance, Play," is a sought-after clinician and choral conductor, and has guest conducted for the Connecticut Music Educators' Association Elementary Honors Choir, New Hampshire Music Educators' Association Elementary Honors Choir, Kodály Organization of New York "Voices United" Festival, Pennsylvania Music Educators' Association Elementary ChorusFest and various All-County chorus groups throughout New York. Mr. Knapp has presented elementary classroom music and choral workshops at various music education conferences, including national conferences for the National Association for Music Education, American Choral Directors Association, Organization of American Kodály Educators, and Feierabend Association for Music Education. Mr. Knapp is the Program Coordinator for the Summer Music Studies at Hofstra University, a Past-President of the Suffolk County Music Educators' Association, and is actively involved with the New York State School Music Association, currently serving on their Curriculum Committee. Mr. Knapp is the only educator to simultaneously hold Lifetime Memberships in ACDA, FAME and OAKE.

About the March 24th Music Directors

Edward P. Norris III (Nassau Chamber Chorale) is the director of Choral Music at Glen Cove High School. He conducts the Mixed Chorus and Select Chorale and also teaches courses in Music Theory, and AP Music Theory. During Mr. Norris' tenure at Glen Cove High School, the Mixed Chorus and Select Chorale have only received Gold Medals and Gold Medals with Distinction at the NYSSMA Major Ensemble festivals. In 2013, the Select Chorale was invited to perform at the White House for the President and Mrs. Obama, as well as other invited guests. In January of 2016, Mr. Norris and the Select Chorale performed in a concert tour of Italy which included performances at St. Peters Basilica, the Church of San Lorenzo, and the Basilica of St. Francis. While on tour, the Chorale had the distinct honor to perform for His Holiness; Pope Francis at the Feast of the Epiphany at St. Peters. In the spring of 2019, the Chorale will perform at the Music For All National Choral Festival in Indianapolis, Indiana. Mr. Norris is very fortunate to have been a guest conductor/clinician at many choral festivals and is also an adjunct professor at the Aaron Copland School of Music at Queens College. Currently in his twelfth year with MYO, Mr. Norris is extremely proud to be the director of the Chamber Chorale. In recent years, this group has performed some of the world's finest choral literature in stunning performance settings. Mr. Norris is extremely grateful for the opportunity to work with these fine young vocalists!

Louise O'Hanlon (Nassau Symphonic Choir) has been an educator for the past 29 years. She is proud to have spent 25 of those years in the Herricks School District. Ms. O'Hanlon holds a Bachelor of Music and a Higher Diploma in Education from University College in Cork, Ireland; a Master's Degree in Education from Lehman College (City University of New York); and certificates in both Orff (Hofstra University) and Kodaly (New York University). Louise has been studying choral conducting and taking further choral studies at Westminster Choir College in Princeton, New Jersey during the summer months. At Herricks High School, Louise teaches Treble Choir, Chamber Choir, and Mixed Chorus. Under Ms. O'Hanlon's directorship, Herricks Chamber Choir

About the March 24th Music Directors

has consistently received ratings of Gold and Gold with Distinction for Level VI performance at NYSSMA. Chamber Choir has performed at the ACDA All Eastern Conference (American Choral Director Association) in 2012 and at the NYACDA Conference in October 2016. Her choirs have also performed at Carnegie Hall, Alice Tully Hall, Lincoln Center, Queens College, Adelphi University, Hofstra University, and Westminster Choir College. Professionally, Ms. O'Hanlon has been a guest conductor for several All County festivals in Suffolk County. Ms. O'Hanlon's passion for World Music has led to reading sessions at Westminster Choir College and a presentation at the Crane School of Music. In the fall of 2017, Ms. O'Hanlon presented World Music workshops at the Balanced Mind Conference and the NYACDA Conference. As the conductor of Symphonic Choir she loves to expose her students to a wide variety of ethnically diverse music. In addition to choral leadership, Ms. O'Hanlon is also a Health Coach and Yoga and Mindfulness teacher.

About the Pianists

Naomi Aomori (Nassau Treble Choir) has been an active soloist, chamber musician, and accompanist for over 40 years. As a performing artist, she has worked with both young musicians and professionals, performing in halls throughout the New York area including Carnegie Hall, Avery Fisher Hall, LeFrak Concert Hall, Jazz at Lincoln Center, Tilles Center, Madison Theater, Flushing Town Hall and Kaufmann Concert Hall at the 92nd Street Y. She has accompanied groups such as the All-County HS Women's Chorus, Division 3 Chorus, Mineola Choral Society, Queens College Orchestra, and has worked with over 150 singers and instrumentalists for various auditions, competitions, college entrance exams and NYSSMA events. She has also performed with many school choral groups, school musicals, and ballet dancers, playing a wide range of repertoire from classical to jazz. She also remains an active educator, teaching private piano lessons. Previously, she taught ear training and music theory lessons at the Children's Orchestra Society and at the Yamaha School of Music in Tokyo, Japan. Some of her students have gone on to study at prestigious conservatories around the country. Ms. Aomori graduated from the Senzoku Gakuen University in Japan majoring in Music Education, and completed her Master of Arts degree at the Aaron Copland School of Music, Queens College under the direction of Ms. Morey Ritt.

About the Pianists

Cara Brown (Nassau Chamber Chorale) received her Bachelor of Music Degree from Butler University and her Master's Degree in Music Education from Hofstra University. She currently serves as Music Teacher at Miller Avenue School in the Shoreham-Wading River Central School District. In addition to her work at Miller Avenue, Ms. Brown maintains an active practice teaching private piano and voice lessons and also serves as Associate Artistic Director and Director of Educational Programming at the Smithtown Performing Arts Center. Previously the Resident Musical Director for the Smithtown Performing Arts Center, she has received multiple Broadway World nominations for Best Musical Direction and her private students are regularly selected to attend All-County and All-State festivals. Ms. Brown has served as accompanist and assistant conductor for the Nassau Youth Chorale (now Nassau Chamber Chorale) since 2007.

Jeong-Hwa Park (Nassau Concert Choir) has been actively teaching and performing as a soloist and chamber musician in South Korea and the United States. Ms. Park holds Master of Arts and Doctor of Musical Arts degrees in piano performance from Arizona State University (ASU). She has won numerous awards including first prize in The Joseph and Ida Klatzkin Contemporary Solo Keyboard Music Competition and the ASU Piano Concerto Competition, and a Special Presentation Award from Artists International Presentations. Her concerto performance with the ASU Symphony Orchestra was broadcast on public radio, KBAQ, in Arizona. Her major performances include a New York debut recital at Weill Hall at Carnegie Hall, Old First Concert Series in San Francisco, Gammage Auditorium in Arizona, Museum of Arts in Arizona, London Piano Festival, and Master Works Festival at Houghton College, New York. In South Korea, she performed her solo recital at Dajeon Arts and Cultural Center, and a lecture recital at Buam Art Hall in Seoul. She also gave a performance at the College Music Society International Conference in Seoul as a collaborative pianist. As an accompanist, she performed for World Vision Korea Children's Choir and was invited to accompany the National Choir of Korea on tour, resulting in several concerts which were broadcast on Korean national television. Currently, Ms. Park is an adjunct faculty member at Nassau Community College; serves on the piano faculty at Center for Preparatory Studies in Music at Queens College and Brooklyn Conservatory of Music.

Kenneth Zagare (Nassau Symphonic Choir) has been directing the acclaimed vocal ensembles at Malverne High School for over a decade, focusing on technical prowess and inclusive, multicultural programming which has inspired audiences from neighborhood to festival stages. He also instructs a rigorous collegiate music theory course, and musically directs the school's fully-staged musical each spring. Through his tailored, collaborative coachings, his students have auditioned and been selected for participation in such honorary choirs as NMEA All-County, NYSSMA All-State, NAFME All-Eastern, the MYO Chorale, and the ACDA All-Eastern/All-National Choir. He is a member of the eVoco Voice Collective, the Minister of Music at Holy Cross Lutheran Church in Lake Ronkonkoma, and a freelance accompanist between Nassau and Suffolk counties. Kenneth received his BM in Music Education from the Crane School of Music, and completed his MS in Education at SUNY Stony Brook.

ABOUT THE METROPOLITAN YOUTH ORCHESTRA OF NEW YORK

The Metropolitan Youth Orchestra of New York (MYO) is committed to fostering a community of talented young musicians from Long Island and providing them with an opportunity to rehearse and perform choral and orchestral masterworks at the highest possible level with recognized leaders in music education and performance. Founded in 1993 by John C. McNeur, MYO has grown from a 15-piece orchestra to seven orchestras and seven choral ensembles, serving close to 1,000 musicians between the ages of 8 and 18. MYO enjoys a rich tradition of international summer performance tours, beginning with the 1997 tour to Germany, France, and Austria through the most recent tour to Berlin, Dresden, Prague, Vienna, and Budapest in July 2018.
