From MYO Board President Sandra Baskin:

I am so very saddened to hear about Clare. She was the backbone of MYO and was John's strongest support system with all aspects of running the organization. I really got to know her on all the MYO summer tours together. She was a great lady - kind, intelligent, and had a great sense of humor. She and John were inseparable and always won the "Cutest Couple" award on the tours he led! She will be deeply missed.

About the Composer

Ben Barish

Ben Barish

Composer of "Vulnerable"

Ben Barish is an eleven-year-old composer, pianist, violinist and guitarist from Nyack, New York. He is a nominee in the Hamlich International Classical Composition Awards, and he is a current semifinalist in the Music International Grand Prix. In 2022, Ben was a first-place winner of the International Smederevo Composition Competition, a first-place winner in the New York NFMC Composition Competition, and a finalist in the MTG song-writing contest, judged by Soomin Kim and Daniel Felsenfeld from the Juilliard School of Music. He is so grateful to MYO for inviting him on stage to perform "Vulnerable" with this amazing group of musicians.

Composer's Statement for "Vulnerable"

This song was originally written to honor the students and families in Uvalde, Texas last year. I was an elementary school student at the time, and I wanted to find a musical expression for the sadness, fear and vulnerability that I and other children felt at the moment.

About the Music Directors

Catherine Birke

Catherine Birke

Catherine Birke (Nassau Symphony Orchestra) is an energetic and passionate conductor, violinist, and educator. She is the Music Director of the Music Advancement Program (MAP) at The Juilliard School and the Director of Orchestras at Herricks High School. At Herricks, she conducts over 200 students in four thriving orchestras and her ensembles consistently earn the highest rating of "Gold with Distinction" at the NYSSMA Major Evaluation Festival. Under her direction, the Herricks HS Chamber Orchestra won 1st Place in the American String Teachers' Association (ASTA) 2018 National Orchestra Festival. Her small chamber ensembles consistently earn high honors as well, including annual participation in the Lincoln Center Chamber Music Society's (CMS) Young Musicians Program (YMP) competition, where three ensembles coached by Ms. Birke were selected for the regional semi-final and two ensembles were selected as finalists in 2022. For six years, Ms. Birke served as the Director of Strings at the New York State Summer School of the Arts (NYSSSA) School of Orchestral Studies, an intensive residential summer program for advanced high school musicians co-sponsored by the Philadelphia Orchestra. She is an adjunct Music Education faculty member at Hofstra University. A sought-after guest conductor and an accomplished violinist, Birke performs regularly as the Concertmaster of the South Shore Symphony and Long Island Lyric Opera, and has served as both an orchestra chairperson and a Vice-President on the Executive Board of NMEA. Ms. Birke holds a Bachelor of Music degree from Temple University (where she studied with Co-concertmaster of the Philadelphia Orchestra, William DePasquale), a Master of Music degree from the University of the Arts, and an Advanced Certificate in Music Theory from Berklee College of Music.

About the Music Directors

Peggy Ho

Peggy Ho

Peggy Ho (Nassau Concert Orchestra) began her musical training on clarinet, piano, and violin in grade school. She holds a Bachelor of Music in education and clarinet performance from Ithaca College, a Master of Arts in music history from LI University, a Master of Arts in conducting from Hofstra University, and Doctorate in music education from Teachers College, Columbia University. Her clarinet teachers include Naomi Drucker, Richard Faria, and Ayako Oshima Neidich. Having traveled extensively throughout the world, Dr. Ho has performed as principal clarinetist with the North American Elite Youth Orchestra, the Long Island Youth Orchestra, and performed with the Rome Music Festival. She has guest conducted regional and district orchestras throughout New York. Her interest in the expansion of the performance education programs to include portfolio and project based assessment have led her to share her thoughts as presenter at various music conferences, including the Winter NYSSMA Conference, Balanced Curriculum Mind Conference, and NYSBDA Symposium. Dr. Ho is a featured educator in NYSSMA's DVD Music Views and has been published in School Music News. She is currently the Director of Bands at the Wheatley School in East Williston, NY.

About the Music Directors

Michelina Sobolewski

Michelina Sobolewski

Michelina Sobolewski (Nassau String Orchestra) received her Bachelor of Music Education from the Crane School of Music, where she studied Viola with Dr. Peter Bucknell and Dr. Shelly Tramposh. She received her Master's degree from Stony Brook University, and Suzuki certification from the Hartt School of Music under the guidance of Carrie Reuning-Hummel, one of the first Suzuki students in the United States. Mrs. Sobolewski is an active member of the music community, having served as a chairperson for Nassau County Music Educators Association (NMEA), the executive board of the Long Island String Festival (LISFA) and guest conductor for the Suffolk County Music Educators Association (SCMEA). She has performed with the Sound Symphony Orchestra, Crane Alumni Orchestra, and is a pit musician for the Manhasset School District. Mrs. Sobolewski has been a clinician for NYSCAME and Balanced Mind Conferences, presenting workshops on curriculum, mindfulness, and programming. In addition to her passion for music, she is a certified yoga instructor for both children and adults, focusing on how breathing and mindfulness can help to improve performance. Mrs. Sobolewski is currently an elementary orchestra teacher in the Herricks School District. Her orchestras perform regularly at the NYSSMA Major Organization Evaluation Festival, consistently receiving "Gold" and "Gold with Distinction" ratings.

About the Music Directors

Scott Stickley

Scott Stickley

Scott Stickley (Nassau Principal Orchestra) is one of The Metropolitan Youth Orchestra of New York's longest-tenured conductors. Since MYO's inception, Mr. Stickley has seen the organization become one of the largest youth orchestra and choir programs in the country. Highlights of Maestro Stickley's tenure include an audience-acclaimed tour of Italy in July 2022 featuring a performance at the Florence Youth Orchestra Festival; a performance at Jazz at Lincoln Center of the 2019 MYO award winning composition On-Again, Off Again by Juilliard graduate Jack Frerer, 2016 MYO Orchestra performance at the Granada International Festival of Music and Dance; a 2014 Carnegie Hall world premiere of Norwegian composer Ola Gjeilo's choral masterwork To the East and To the West; a dynamic 2007 performance at the New York State School Music Association Conference; a first-time MYO performance of Beethoven's Ninth Symphony at David Geffen Hall in 2006; and a 2004 performance of Pulitzer Prize-winning composer Paul Moravec's MYO commission and world premiere, New York Dances. Soloists featured with MYO under his direction include the New York Philharmonic's clarinetist Stanley Drucker, Metropolitan Opera soprano Danielle de Niese, and international piano soloist Gilles Vonsattel. Scott Stickley teaches instrumental music for the Herricks Schools, has served as interim director for the Adelphi University orchestra, and guest conducted the orchestra at the Crane School of Music at SUNY Potsdam. Hailing from Oregon, he holds degrees from the University of Oregon and the University of Michigan. He studied conducting at the Tanglewood Music Center and attended conducting seminars with Gustav Meier, Michael Tilson Thomas, and Roger Norrington.

About MYO

The Metropolitan Youth Orchestra of New York (MYO) is committed to fostering a community of talented young musicians from Long Island and providing them with an opportunity to rehearse and perform choral and orchestral masterworks at the highest possible level with recognized leaders in music education and performance. Founded in 1993 by John C. McNeur, MYO has grown from a 15-piece orchestra to seven orchestras and eight choirs, serving close to 800 musicians between the ages of 8 and 18. MYO enjoys a rich tradition of international summer performance tours, beginning with the 1997 tour to Germany, France, and Austria through the most recent tour to Italy in July 2022.

Bringing clarity to a confusing real estate market.

I have been a trusted advisor to homeowners just like you, and have the answers you need.

Although I specialize in properties in the Town of Brookhaven, I work with clients across Suffolk County, and can also assist in Nassau County.

Backed by Coach's Relocation Department, I can also assist you in buying or selling property anywhere in the world.

I work with buyer and seller clients, ensuring that their needs are met whether working with clients buying their first house, or selling the place they've called home for decades. Through-out the process I can recommend service providers with specialized knowledge in their field. Whether you need a mortgage, an attorney, a moving company, a painter, electrician or an expediter, I'll make it easier for you to achieve your real estate goal that much quicker!

List your home with me.
