Jayden Rivers

Jayden Rivers

Winner of the 2025–2026 MYO Concerto and Vocal Competition

Jayden Rivers is currently in seventh grade and participates in chorus and chamber chorus at Robert Frost MS in Deer Park. Jayden is honored to be selected as the Division I Vocal winner of the 2025–2026 MYO Concerto and Vocal Competition. He has been taking private vocal lessons for ten months with Ms. Alison Costanza. He has been accepted into SCMEA's All County Choir for three years in a row. He performed at NYSSMA for the first time in May 2025. Here are a few fun facts about Jayden: he has a twin brother who plays the cello, and he dislikes musicals but loves opera. He has been told he has perfect pitch, and Jayden wants to be a professional opera singer or a mathematician one day! Jayden also earned his black belt in Tae Kwon Do at age nine. Jayden loves performing with MYO!!!

Bohdan Budash

Bohdan Budash

Winner of the 2025–2026 MYO Concerto and Vocal Competition

Bohdan Budash, seventeen, is a Ukrainian born Baritone, Violinist, and Pianist. As a vocalist, he has attended numerous competitions in Ukraine, Hungary, Czech Republic, and the United States. Bohdan was recently named the first-place winner of the 2025 American Protégé International Vocal Competition and made his Carnegie Hall debut in December 2025. Recently, Bohdan also appeared as a soloist with the Island Symphony Orchestra at the 2026 Bach Festival. As a violinist, Bohdan enjoys performing with numerous orchestras across Long Island, and directs the Long Island Camerata. In his free time, Bohdan teaches private lessons and enjoys studying conducting.

About the Music Directors

Brad Drinkwater

Brad Drinkwater

Brad Drinkwater (Suffolk Symphonic Choir) has been teaching music, including 7th through 12th grade mixed and treble voice choirs, since 2005. He currently teaches choir and music theory at Connetquot High School in Bohemia, where he also directs the annual Alumni Choir. Brad served as the pianist for the MYO Suffolk Symphonic Choir from its inception in 2013 until his appointment as the inaugural director of the Suffolk Senior Treble Choir in 2019. He is delighted to be making music with the Suffolk Symphonic Choir once again, now as music director. Under his leadership, the Connetquot High School Concert Choir has appeared at American Choral Directors Association, New York State School Music Association, and New York State School Board Association conferences and won 2nd place in the 2020 American Prize national performing arts competition. Brad was also chosen as a semifinalist for the 2021 Grammy Music Educator Award. Additionally, Connetquot's annual Choral Arts Day event was selected by Music for All as an Advocacy in Action award recipient. Brad received his bachelor's degree in music education, with dual concentrations in voice and piano, from New York University and later earned a Master of Arts degree from Teachers College, Columbia University. At NYU, he studied with David Elliott, Francisco Nuñez, and Deirdre O'Donohue and served as the Assistant Director and pianist for the NYU Children's Choir. He was also recognized at the International Championship of Collegiate A Cappella for both arrangements and vocal performances. Brad enjoys working as a conductor, singer, and collaborative pianist, performing throughout Long Island. Most importantly, he shares his love of music with his wife, Lauren, and their two sons.

Craig B. Knapp

Craig B. Knapp

Craig B. Knapp (Suffolk Treble Choir) is the current Elementary Music Department Chairperson in the Rocky Point School District where he has been teaching Classroom Music and Chorus, grades 3 through 5, at the Joseph A. Edgar Intermediate School since 1998. A graduate of the Crane School of Music, Mr. Knapp has also studied with distinguished educators and musicians including John Feierabend, Jos Wuytack, Henry Leck, Francisco Núñez, Janet Galván, Will Schmid and Bobby McFerrin. He is the co-author of the book "First Steps in Music with Orff Schulwerk: Sing, Say, Dance, Play," a contributing author for the book "Feierabend Fundamentals: History, Philosophy, and Practice," and co-author of the soon to be released book, Conversational Solfege with Orff Schulwerk: Sing, Say, Dance, Play in a Tuneful, Beatful, Artful Way, all published by GIA Publications. Craig is a sought-after clinician and choral conductor and has guest conducted for the Connecticut Music Educators' Association Elementary Honors Choir, New Hampshire Music Educators' Association Elementary Honors Choir, Ohio Music Educators' Association Elementary All-State Choir, KONY (Kodály Organization of New York) "Voices United" Festival and Pennsylvania Music Educators' Association Elementary ChorusFest. He has also guest conducted various All-County chorus groups across New York State. Craig is actively involved with NYSSMA, where he recently served on their Curriculum Committee and NYSSMA Manual Committee. Craig is the only educator to simultaneously hold Lifetime Memberships in ACDA, FAME and OAKE. On February 1, 2025, Craig Knapp was inducted in the Long Island Music & Entertainment Hall of Fame as their 2024 Educator of Note.

About the Music Directors

Rachel Nagle

Rachel Nagle

Rachel Nagle (Suffolk Senior Treble Choir) began her career in 2007, teaching high school choir, and elementary music in the Commack School District. During this time, she also served as children's choir conductor through the Stony Brook Children's Program, and completed three levels of Orff certification at Hofstra University. She has since had the pleasure and experience of teaching all grades, K-12, and serving as a festival conductor in Suffolk and Nassau County. Rachel received her M.S. in Music Education from Queens College and her B.M. in Music Education with concentrations in voice and music in special education from the Crane School of Music at SUNY Potsdam. She has spent twelve years as Elwood-John Glenn High School's Choral Director, where she cultivated a rich musical community within her classroom, and established the select a cappella ensemble "Acappelwood." In addition to her choirs there, she has been the director and vocal director of several musical theater productions. She is currently teaching elementary music and beginning choirs, as well as secondary vocal lessons in the Elwood School District. Rachel assisted in developing and directing the a cappella group established through Long Island Children's Choir (LICCC) alongside her husband, James, and continues to create accessible a cappella arrangements for contemporary ensembles. In addition to her teaching, she enjoys performing as a soprano in eVoco Voice Collective's Treble Ensemble. She currently resides in Stony Brook, NY with her husband and their two sons.

About the Music Directors

Phil Preddice

Phil Preddice

Phil Preddice (Suffolk Principal Orchestra) is a graduate of the Crane School of Music at SUNY Potsdam where he studied viola with Lamar Alsop, Theodore Israel, and Maurice Baritaud. His Vocal and Conducting instruction and was guided by Richard Griffith and Brock McElheran. Performances under the batons of Eugene Ormandy, Stanley Chappel, Christopher Keene, and Aaron Copland inspired Mr. Preddice to reach for new heights as a conductor. He has been the conductor of the Suffolk Principal Orchestra since its formation in 2008.

About the Music Directors

Felicya Schwarzman

Felicya Schwarzman

Felicya Schwarzman (Suffolk String Orchestra) is a professional cellist, violinist, conductor, and music educator at Half Hollow Hills High School East where she directs the String Orchestra, Guitar Ensemble, and Cross-Campus Chamber Orchestra. Her Cross-Campus Orchestra, an elite Level VI ensemble, consistently achieves Gold with Distinction at NYSSMA Majors. Her Guitar Ensemble has been featured at the NYSSMA All State Conference, NAFME All-Eastern Conference, and is in the Long Island High School Music Hall of Fame. Ms. Schwarzman is the recipient of the SCMEA Music Educator Innovator Award and Suffolk County Legislator's Teacher Appreciation award. A sought-after clinician, Ms. Schwarzman has conducted the SCMEA Div III All-County Festival and Patchogue-Medford Night of 1,000 Strings and is excited to be conducting the Nassau All-County Festival at Tilles Center this year. She is proud that under her baton, the Suffolk String Orchestra was one of the first groups in the world to perform Six or Seven Dances by Libby Larsen, a piece commissioned by MYO as part of the Larsen commission consortium. She is the immediate Past-President of NY-ASTA and has presented at the ASTA National Conference and NYSSMA Winter Conference. As a professional cellist and violinist, she performed in the South Shore Symphony Orchestra. In addition, she has adjudicated and coached the NY All State Symphony Orchestra Cello Section. Ms. Schwarzman holds a Bachelor of Music Education from Ithaca College and a Master of Music Education with an Advanced Certificate in Bilingual Education from Teachers College, Columbia University. Ms. Schwarzman is a proud alumna of MYO; she joined the MYO family as a violinist in 2007 and then as a cellist a year later.

About the Music Directors

Scott Zarchy

Scott Zarchy

Scott Zarchy (Suffolk Symphony Orchestra) is a music educator, cellist, and composer. Mr. Zarchy received undergraduate degrees in Cello Performance and Music Education from the Peabody Conservatory, where he also completed studies in composition. He received a Master of Music degree in Music Education from Boston University and a Master of Arts in Music Composition from Hunter College (CUNY). Mr. Zarchy studied the cello at Peabody with the late Mihály Virizlay, 40-year Principal Cellist of the Baltimore Symphony, and Alan Stepanky, former Associate Principal of the New York Philharmonic. Mr. Zarchy also performed in master classes with cellists including Alisa Weilerstein, Natasha Brofsky, and Amit Peled. Mr. Zarchy was the founding conductor of the MYO Suffolk Concert Orchestra from its inception in 2009 until 2013, at which time he became the founding conductor of the Suffolk Symphony Orchestra. Mr. Zarchy has been the orchestra teacher, as well as pit orchestra and chamber orchestra director, at Patchogue-Medford High School since 2006, where his ensembles have regularly achieved NYSSMA Level VI Gold and Gold with Distinction ratings. Mr. Zarchy's public school conducting has spanned a wide range of genres, including extensive musical theater work, film music, combined choral/instrumental works and jazz, as well as more traditional classical repertoire. Mr. Zarchy is an active member of the Long Island music education community; in 2020, he served as guest conductor of the Nassau All-County Division III Orchestra and in 2025, he conducted the SCMEA Division III West Orchestra. He is also a former executive board member of LISFA.

About MYO

The Metropolitan Youth Orchestra of New York (MYO) is committed to fostering a community of talented young musicians from Long Island and providing them with an opportunity to rehearse and perform choral and orchestral masterworks at the highest possible level with recognized leaders in music education and performance. Founded in 1993 by John C. McNeur, MYO has grown from a 15-piece orchestra to seven orchestras and seven choirs, serving over 800 musicians between the ages of 8 and 18. MYO enjoys a rich tradition of international summer performance tours, beginning with the 1997 tour to Germany, France, and Austria through the most recent tour to France in July 2024, and looking ahead to the July 2026 Greece Tour.
