

Chloe Cheong is a pianist and plays violin in the MYO Suffolk Symphony Orchestra, studying piano for nine years and violin for three. Chloe has won multiple piano competitions and performed at Carnegie Hall and Merkin Hall, as well as in recitals, community and church performances. Chloe also plays in school ensembles at West Hollow Middle School—Orchestra, Chamber and Jazz Band—and has participated in LISFA and SCMEA. Recent piano repertoire includes Chopin's Ballade no. 1 and works by Beethoven, Mendelssohn, and Rachmaninoff. Chloe enjoys exploring classical music, and outside of music, she enjoys ice skating and drawing.
