

Santino Koslovsky is an energetic and curious learner with a passion for both music and sports. He loves exploring everything around him and expresses himself through piano, guitar, drums, and singing. An avid hockey player, Santino proudly plays for the Arrows, whose team recently won the Utica Comet Cup 10U championship in November 2025. In July 2025, he was selected among 24 international students to attend the Concerto Camp in Vienna, Austria, performing with the Savaria Symphony Orchestra under Maestro Christian Erny. Recently, Santino was chosen to play young Simba in his school's production of The Lion King, premiering March 2026.
